2. The shining golden coins did look so bright and jolly,
I took 'em with me home and gave 'em to my Molly;
she promised and she vowed that she never would deceive me, but the devil's in the women and they never can be easy.
3. When I was awakened between six and seven, the guards were all around me in numbers odd and even;
I flew my pistols, but alas, I was mistaken, for Molly'd drawn my pistols and a prisoner I was taken.
4. They put me in jail without judge or writin', for robbing Colonel Pepper in Kilgarry Mountain, but they didn't take my fists so I knocked the sentry down, and bid a fond farewell to the jail in Slaigo town.
5. Now, some take delight in fishin' and bowlin', and others take delight in their carriages a-rollin', but I take delight in the juice of the barley, and courtin' pretty girls in the mornin' so early.
